

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

FOURTH ANNUAL SERLING INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH STUDIES AND MODERN ISRAEL UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Do you have any Jewish Studies related research projects; including Israel related or American Jewish history related research, for example?
Gain valuable professional and academic experience by presenting research from your course work at our 5th annual Serling Institute Undergraduate Research Conference!
This is an excellent opportunity to get feedback from professors and your peers, to share your research with relatives and friends in a supportive environment - virtually! It also looks good professionally on one's CV!

If you are interested in participating, please send a research proposal to Professor Aronoff, aronoffy@msu.edu by March 9, 2021.

In your submission e-mail please include:

- The title of your presentation
 - a short abstract or summary of your paper (or your entire paper if it is already finished)
 - the name of the course in which you completed or will have completed the project
- Presentations should be around 15 minutes.

Students already intending to participate in UURAF or the JMC research conference are encouraged to present at this conference as well!

Tentative Conference date is Friday, April 9, 9AM-5PM
