Application Form

Ed Levy, Jr. and Linda Dresner Levy Endowed Scholarship

$4,000 scholarships available for participants in the Serling Institute summer study abroad at the Hebrew University, $5,000 scholarships available to students studying a semester at one of the major Israeli universities, and $6,000 scholarships available for students studying for a year at one of the major Israeli Universities.

Administered by the Michigan State University
Michael and Elaine Serling Institute for Jewish Studies and Modern Israel

Application criteria:

1. Enrolled at MSU and have completed at least one year of successful study prior to participation;
2. Has demonstrated leadership skills or can show leadership potential; and present a purposeful plan of study in Israel; and
3. Has a GPA of 2.5 or above.

Application requirements:

In order to be eligible for the Levy Scholarship, you will need to submit the following:

1. An application form;
2. An application essay - a 750-word personal statement describing the following:
 - a. Why you want to study in Israel and what you hope to gain academically, professionally, and/or personally;
 - b. How studying in Israel will help you meet your academic, professional and personal goals; and
 - c. Your leadership experience and skills or evidence of leadership potential;
3. An official MSU transcript (<https://reg.msu.edu/Transcripts>) sent directly to the Director; and
4. After the trip - You must submit a brief written statement and thank you letter addressed to the donors, Ed Levy, Jr. and Linda Dresner Levy, on your experience studying in Israel within 30 days of your return. These statements will be used to help promote the Levy Scholarship and study abroad in Israel at MSU.

INSTRUCTIONS: Please be sure to provide all the information requested below; only completed applications will be considered. This form is meant to be completed electronically; that is, simply use the TAB key or mouse to move from one field to the next. When you've provided the information requested, sign the form. Deadlines for submission of applications are given above. If you have questions about the scholarships or the application procedures, please contact the Serling Institute office (tel. 517-432-3493; email jewishst@msu.edu).

The scholarship will first be applied toward any unpaid tuition or other funds owed to the University or may be subtracted from any federal financial aid/loan funds. Any remaining funds will be disbursed to you after the scholarship form has been processed via whatever method you have set up in your student account (student.msu.edu). Please seek advice from your Office of Financial Aid counselor if you have any questions.

Scholarship Agreement – RESPONSE REQUIRED

I hereby agree to express acceptance of a Levy Scholarship if offered to the Director of the Serling Institute for Jewish Studies and Modern Israel in writing within 3 weeks of notification of the award. Failure to do so may result in forfeiture of the scholarship. If I am awarded and I accept a Levy Scholarship, I hereby agree to submit a type-written report about my Israel-related experience to the Serling Institute Director within 30 days of my return to the United States. I understand that statements made in my report may be used by the Serling Institute to promote the Levy Scholarship and Study Abroad activities in Israel.

I hereby authorize the College of Arts and Letters and the Michael and Elaine Serling Institute for Jewish Studies and Modern Israel to release my name and information regarding this scholarship to the donor and to the media. Finally, I understand that if I withdraw from study abroad in Israel (either voluntarily or involuntarily, e.g., if I am suspended from the program) that I will need to reimburse the university the full scholarship. This will not apply to a situation where, due to safety and security considerations, the program is suspended or shortened.
