

THE ISA AND GITA KAPLOWITZ GREEN ISRAEL SCHOLARSHIP FOR INTERNSHIPS IN ISRAEL RELATED TO THE ENVIRONMENT OR TO ARTS AND CULTURE

Deadline: May 30, 2023

Spend a month in Israel with the support of this scholarship before a study abroad Israel program, or participate in an internship for at least 6 weeks if you are not attending a study abroad program in Israel.

Awards up to $2,600 are granted and can support housing and food allowance for an unpaid internship or for a paid internship that does not fully cover these costs. It can also be applied towards a flight.

If you are interested in learning more about internship opportunities related to the environment, contact Dr. Yael Aronoff at aronoffy@msu.edu.

Recipients must have already been accepted by an organization to participate in an internship for a period of six weeks or more unless combined with a Study Abroad Program, in which case the internship period may be for a period of four weeks or more. Internships will be approved by the Director of The Institute.

Applicants must submit the following via email to the Director of The Michael and Elaine Serling Institute for Jewish Studies and Modern Israel, Yael Aronoff at aronoffy@msu.edu and Assistant to the Director, Ariana Mentzel at mentzela@msu.edu:

- Official university transcript (sent directly from the university),
- A 300-500-word essay describing their internship in Israel and what they hope to get out of it that will impact them academically, professionally and personally,
- A detailed budget.

Recipients must also submit a thank-you letter to the Kaplowitz family, the sponsors of the scholarship, describing their experience.

For more information, please contact the Director of The Michael and Elaine Serling Institute for Jewish Studies and Modern Israel, Dr. Yael Aronoff at aronoffy@msu.edu.

*Please contact Director Professor Aronoff if you have extenuating circumstances that require an extension for the deadline and there is a possibility, that if there are available funds, that you can apply late.
